Had to use a phone number. The website only allows one room at a time reservations. 1 800 25 TORCH

Let them know that you will be meeting with the tribe to get the $70 rate.

Where did you get the LDF room information? Do you have a website or phone number?

LDF has 4 rooms available for the corporate rate ($70) non-smoking, 2 queen beds. I will be staying in Minocqua for one night only and made a reservation, but I don't particularly recommend the hotel (Quality Inn). I just happen to be in the points program. I plan to leave to travel part-way to my fishing destination the second night.

Other Minocqua possibilities (20 minutes to LDF) are a Best Western Concord Inn, and an Americinn, both are near the lake. Then there are resort-type hotels like the Waters of Minocqua, which probably won't meet the government rate. There will be more choices in the Wausau area if you don't mind being farther away (90 minutes to LDF).

Let me know if you want me to call and reserve the casino hotel rooms. I will have to check on the cancellation policy also. Sometimes it can be more restrictive.

I am looking at flights to Central Wisconsin (Wausau) which seems to be our best direct flight option. It costs $659 roundtrip per kayak. There are pretty crappy flight times (1:38pm and 2:11 pm into Wausau. Return flights are early 6:10am. I'm not sure if there is a contract flight into Wausau. I think I will check out Concur next.

Since you are looking and not booking, I would say pick two nights 21st and 22nd. I can't see getting out of LDF early. I think we stay a second night or head back to Wausau especially if we fly into there.

Also forgot- should I check for two nights (7/21 and 7/22) or just one?
